

Millionaire by Midnight

What is it?

A glitzy, upbeat evening offering an exhilarating mix of visual entertainment and gambling activities. Involving, action-orientated and highly enjoyable, Millionaire by Midnight is the ultimate challenge in luck, skill and tactical wagering. The chips are down. Can you be a Millionaire by Midnight?

How does it work?

Playing as individuals or as part of a syndicate, each gambler is given an amount of fun money at the start of the evening and then sent into the land of luck. The objective is simple, take on the activities and attempt to win £1,000,000 before the end of the evening...

No previous knowledge of casino games is needed; learn to play as our dealers explain everything simply and clearly.

The emphasis of the evening is to have fun, and though there may be wall to wall tuxedos and shiny ball dresses, the event is informal and allows guests to have a drink, gamble and network with each other. Design the feel of your evening by choosing any combination of games.

Gambling Activities

Stocks and Shares Game

The guests have the opportunity to buy and sell share certificates via our own stock exchange. A screen indicates various incidents which will have dramatic effects on the stock market. Paying for insider information may help.

Black Jack

Black Jack is a true casino classic. Play against the dealer with the objective of drawing cards which add up to 21. Getting close to that number can be fine, but watch out for going bust. Definitely worth having nerves of steel for this one.

Craps

Craps is fast, furious and great fun. Often the table with the most frenzied yelling and shouting, Craps can accommodate around 10 players; each getting a round of throws or 'shooting' of the dice. Bet on the odds of your roll while the rest of the table can bet with or against you.

Roulette

Probably the best known casino game and easiest to play. You can make as many bets as you wish on which number/colour the ball will stop. Spin the wheel and cross your fingers...The game offering really big wins, and equally big losses.

Stud Poker

Based on Five Card Stud Poker, this game offers something for everyone. Each player receives five cards face down and the dealer receives five cards which are shown only once. Whether you're a high roller or a cautious small-better, watch out for those three-of-a-kinds, high pairs or flushes. The true skill however, is mastering a full-proof poker face!

Wheel of Fortune

Now comes a true test of luck. Step up to the 7ft high wheel and spin it with all your might. Each section of the wheel denotes one of six win categories; so cover your ears as everyone wishes, and screams, for the wheel to land on that elusive 20-1.

Millionaire by Midnight

Texas Hold'em

Rapidly becoming the most popular form of poker, Texas Hold'em is the perfect game for beginners and advanced players alike. A pair, flush, full house or Royal Flush - only the cards will tell...

Video Horse Racing

There are eight races over the evening, with each race having eight starters. An expert MC will ensure the races run smoothly. When the tote is declared open guests have the opportunity to buy their tickets for that particular race. When everybody has had a bet the tote is closed. Once the race has been run those with the winning tickets go and receive their winnings
